The City of Dana Point has recognized Jim "Skip" Wehan as the "Tall Ship Captain" of Dana Point and a significant contributor to maritime exploration through his founding of the Mariner Sea Scout youth program. A statue of Jim "Skip" Wehan has been commissioned for Dana Point Harbor supported by a fundraising campaign launched to raise $75K for this project.

As you and others have been inspired by Jim "Skip" Wehan, we appreciate your participation in this campaign to help make the "Skip" statue a reality. Your generosity will help inspire generations of residents and tourists to reflect upon the wonder of the sea, the history of maritime exploration, and the joy of sailing.
